

25th GENERAL CHAPTER
Phase I - 2016

Copiosa Apum Fum Redemptio
To Preach the Gospel Ever Anew

REPORT OF THE POSTULATOR GENERAL
TO
THE 25TH GENERAL CHAPTER

(OFFICIAL TEXT)

Over the past seven years, the Postulator General has worked to achieve the beatification of the six Redemptorist Martyrs of Cuenca; to obtain the Decree of the Holy Father regarding the heroic virtues of three Redemptorists (Janauschek, Pelagius, Losito), thus concluding the phase concerning the legal investigation into the life, virtues and reputation of sanctity of those concerned; and to begin the Cause of Canonization of a Slovak confrere of the Greek-Catholic rite (Mastiliak).

During the same period, two [ordinary] processes regarding a miracle as well as a Supplementary one were held, the preparation of the position regarding the virtues and eventual miracles of other active causes went ahead, and, in consultation with experts of the Congregation for the Causes of the Saints, various cases of presumed miraculous cures attributed to our candidates were examined.

Finally, after a long journey, it was possible to bring about the promulgation of the Decree on the heroic virtues, and the Cause for the beatification, of Maria Celeste Crostarosa, Foundress of the Redemptoristines. Her beatification will almost certainly be celebrated in 2016

Below is presented a chart of the Causes of Canonization currently being treated by the Office of the Postulator General, outlining the developments from 2009 up to the present (May 2015).

STATE OF THE VARIOUS CAUSES

1. THE "BLESSED"

In each case, a miracle is required for the cause to proceed to canonization.

1. Blessed PETER DONDERS (1805-1887), professed priest [Netherlands].

In recent years there has been significant interest in this cause, particularly in the Netherlands and Surinam. Currently investigations of some cases of healing are under way to assess their extraordinary nature in view of the requirement of a miracle for the process of Canonization.

2. Blessed KASPAR STANGGASSINGER (1871-1899), professed priest [Germany]

3. Blessed GENNARO MARIA SARNELLI Gennaro (1702-1744), professed priest [Italy].

4. Blessed FRANCIS XAVIER SEELOS (1819-1867), professed priest [USA].

2009 - V - 19: The Process, was opened in the Diocese of Baltimore (USA), regarding the alleged miraculous healing from cancer of the esophagus attributed to the intercession of Blessed Francis.

2010 - IX - 30: The closing of the Diocesan Process regarding the miracle.

2010 - X - 8: The promulgation by the Congregation for the Causes of Saints of the Decree opening the [Congregational] process regarding the miracle.

Since the person healed died of pneumonia four years after the disappearance of the tumor, it was not possible to ascertain definitively that the healing was complete and lasting.

At the moment we are gathering the documentation relating to two cases of alleged miraculous cures attributed to the intercession of Blessed Francis.

- 2011 - VI - 11: The Congress of Theological Consultors on the martyrdom of the six Servants of God. The Congress ended with a unanimous positive vote
- 2012 - XI - 6: The Ordinary Congregation of Cardinals and Bishops on the Affirmation of martyrdom. The Ordinary ended with a unanimous positive vote.
- 2012 - XII - 20: Benedict XVI authorized the promulgation of the Decree affirming Martyrdom.
- 2013 - X - 13: Beatification celebration in Tarragona (Spain), presided over by the Prefect of the Congregation for the Causes of Saints. During the celebration, 522 martyrs killed in the years 1936-1939 were beatified.

In collaboration with the Province of Madrid a folder with the approved portraits of the six new blessed was commissioned .

The resultant product has the same layout as the folders printed in the past of other Redemptorist saints and blessed.

2. The “Venerable”

In the following cases a miracle is required to proceed to the beatification phase.

11. Venerable GIUSEPPE ARMANDO PASSERAT (1772-1858), professed priest [France].

12. Venerable MICHELE DI NETTA (1787-1849), professed priest [Italy].

2014 - IV - 15: The Ordinary Congregation of Cardinals and Bishops regarding the Affirmation of virtues. The Ordinary ended with a unanimous positive vote.

On the afternoon of the same day, Pope Francis authorizes the promulgation of the Decree on the heroic virtues, declaring Fr. Janauschek “Venerable.”

15. Venerable PELAGIO SAUTER (1878-1961), professed priest [Brazil].

2008 - XI - 4: Closure, in the Diocese of Goiânia, of the supplementary process regarding an alleged miraculous healing attributed to the intercession of the Servant of God.

2008 - XI - 18: The promulgation by the Congregation for the Causes of Saints of the Decree opening the supplementary process regarding the presumed miraculous healing.

2010 - X - 29: The Promulgation by the Congregation for the Causes of Saints of the Decree of Validity of the Acts of the supplementary process.

2012 - VI - 27: Two Medical Experts, appointed by the Congregation for the Causes of Saints, deliver their opinions regarding the alleged miraculous healing.

Both Experts express a negative opinion, and conclude that, in the light of the documents collected, the healing is to be considered explainable according to current scientific knowledge.

In the light of new investigations, work begins to review the case of healing by the Congregation for the Causes of Saints.

2013 - II - 14: A Congress of Theological Consultors on the life, virtues and reputation of sanctity of the Servant of God.

- The Congress, while ending with a unanimous positive vote, recorded a positive vote with reservation by one of the nine Consultors. They call for further archival documentation, designed to lead to a deeper awareness of the virtuous acts of the Servant of God, and the drafting of a documented biography that satisfies the demands of historical criticism.
- 2014 - III - 25: The responses of the Postulator are accepted by the Consultor theologian, who changed his vote from positive with reservation to positive.
- 2014 - XI - 4: Ordinary Congregation of Cardinals and Bishops on the Affirmation of his virtues. The Congregation expressed a unanimous positive vote.
- 2014 - XI - 7: Pope Francis authorized the promulgation of the Decree regarding the heroic virtues, declaring Fr. Pelagius “Venerable.”
- 16. Venerable MARIA CELESTE CROSTAROSA (1696-1755), professed religious, foundress of the Order of the Most Redeemer [Italian].
- 2011 - X - 10: A request for the opening of the Diocesan Process regarding an alleged extraordinary healing attributed to the intercession of the Servant of God.
- The above process took place in the diocese of Foggia from 4 January to 23 July 1987 and concerns the healing of a perforated and badly infected ear.
- 2012 - V - 11: A Congress of Theological Consultors concerning the life, virtues and reputation of sanctity of the Servant of God.
- The Congress, while ending with a unanimous positive vote, recorded reservations on the part of some Consultors. They requested a study clarifying the mystical experience of the Servant of God; a deeper study of the religious-historical context of the period in which she lived; an updated bibliography to include the documents and studies published since 1996, the year of completion of the Position regarding her virtues, up to the present time and, finally, an updated report on her reputation for sanctity as attested over the last decade.
- 2012 - IX - 15: The responses of the Postulator were accepted by the theological consultors, who changed their vote from positive with reservations to positive.
- 2013 - V - 7: Meeting of the Ordinary Congregation of Cardinals and Bishops concerning the Affirmation of her virtues. The meeting ended with a unanimous positive vote.
- 2013 - VI - 3: Pope Francis authorized the promulgation of the Decree regarding the heroism of her virtues, declaring Maria Celeste Crostarosa “Venerable.”

2013 - XII - 6: The Congregation for the Causes of Saints promulgates a Decree declaring the validity of the legal acts of the process on the miracle.

2015 - II - 19: Meeting of the Medical Council regarding the alleged miraculous healing. The Congress ended with a unanimous positive vote.

The Congregation for the Causes of Saints decided that the Congress of Theological Consultors were to meet on June 9, 2015 to discuss the position regarding the eventual miracle.

If the Consultors, as is hoped, express a positive vote, there will be an Ordinary Congregation of Cardinals and Bishops. If the voting in this instance is also positive, the Pope will authorize the promulgation of the Decree affirming the miracle, thereby opening the way to proceed to the rite of beatification that probably will take place in Foggia in 2016.

3. Servants of God

17. Servant of God FRANCISCO BARRECHEGUREN MONTAGUT (1881-1957), professed priest [Spain].
