WHO'S WHO

The Conference Coordinator for North America

Fr. Jack Kingsbury, CSsR, DMin is a member of the Baltimore Province. He first professed vows as a Redemptorist in 1975 and was ordained to the priesthood in 1980. He has served in parish ministry, retreat ministry and formation for Redemptorist seminarians.

The North American Novitiate

The North American Novitiate is situated in Toronto. There are no novices this year, but two students are living in the community there, guided by the Director of Novices, Fr. Raymond Douzich, CSsR, PhD and Fr. David Louch, CSsR, ThD.

The North American Theologate

The North American Theologate is situated in San Antonio, Texas, where the students from most units complete their studies in Theology before final profession. The Directors are Fr. Peter Hill, CSsR of Dominica, and Fr. Gerald (Mick) Fleming, CSsR of Canada.

The Centre for Redemptorist Spirituality

The Director is Fr. Piotr Chyla, CSsR of the Warsaw Province. His ministry involves offering courses in Redemptorist Spirituality, facilitating retreats and pilgrimages to the historical sites of the Congregation, writing One Body, a digital monthly prayer resource, and also collaborating with the Secretariat for Formation.

The Redemptorist North American Secretariat for Partnership in Mission

This Secretariat's goal is to generate and implement ideas to cultivate Alphonsian/Redemptorist spirituality among all Christ's faithful through such means as:

- creating resources for Redemptorist Associates and parishes
- congresses, courses or convocations
- newsletters
- retreats
- pilgrimages.
